DESCRIPTION

2026 Toyota Tundra 4x4 Crewmax Platinum for sale

The 2026 Tundra CrewMax Platinum in Midnight Black Metallic is the upscale version of a truck that still knows how to work. It combines a muscular engine and roomy CrewMax cab with Platinum-level touches like premium interior materials, upgraded tech, and a smooth, composed ride - all wrapped in a sleek Midnight Black finish that looks sharp without trying too hard. Inside feels plush but practical, with a big touchscreen, comfort-focused seating, and thoughtful storage everywhere. You still get modern safety features like adaptive cruise control, lane assist, and blind-spot monitoring to handle the everyday stuff for you. In short, it's a capable, comfortable full-size pickup that's as happy on the highway as it is on the job - but looks a bit fancier doing both.
